

TRADING CASE

+442070434507
info@tradingcase.com

Payment Policy

The Buyer acknowledges these rules by making an order or purchasing a product on www.tradingcase.com.

In order to purchase a product, the Buyer makes an order in the e-shop. This is processed via a specially designed interface in the e-shop.

When making an order, the Buyer should provide the following information: payment method from the Seller's list.

The Buyer is responsible for providing true information, otherwise it will be impossible for the Seller to fulfill his obligations.

The Buyer should pay for the product in accordance with the declared price, using available payment methods.

Payment is considered to be done at the moment when declared sum of money is fully transferred to operating account, pay-desk of an authorized third party.

The Buyer is having a right to cancel the purchase only if the product is not delivered yet.

Right of use of the product is considered to be transferred from the moment of delivery of the product.

Price of the right being transferred is given in the product description.

The Seller is not responsible for any damage or losses caused by inappropriate use of the product by the Buyer.

The Seller is having a right to assign his rights and obligations, by which he is bound with the Buyer, to third parties if it does not encroach on the Buyer's rights.

The Buyer guarantees that he has legal capacity and necessary authority to purchase product.

Trading Case limited partnership
Company number LP017431
43 Bedford Street, London, WC2E 9HA, England

