Trading Policy

Trading with the Company's money is done on corporate managed accounts. TradingCase distribute trading capital among traders who show the best results at the given period of time.

In order to get a managed account and start trading with TradingCase money, the User should pass a trial. For a trial, we use a trading account with virtual deposit (a demo account).

In order to pass the trial, you need to fulfill the next conditions:

1. Open a demo account with your or one of the recommended broker company with settings:

Trading platforms: MT4, MT5, cTrader

Leverage: not higher than 1:10

Deposit: divisible by 1,000

Currency: USD

2. Register at our website and send a trial request. In this request, you should give settings of your demo account.

3. Start trading on the demo account from Monday, when the markets open.

4. Trial period: 2 weeks of 10 trading days.

5. The trial is considered to be passed if:

Profit: not less than 10% from the starting deposit

Maximum drawdown: less than 3%

Maximum daily drawdown: less than 1%

Profitable days: at least 6

Stop-loss: is set for every order

In case you passed the trial successfully, the Company will provide you with a managed account. The sum on this managed account depends on the trial results, trading method, your experience, trading system, analysis method, the presented information and personal interview with the Company's representative.

Each trader gets a risk-manager who determines individual way of trading on a managed account. Risk-manager is having a right to make decisions concerning: risk/profit correlation, changes in trading conditions, changes in the sum on a managed account, taking a managed account back, giving an extra managed account, and other decision not mentioned above as well.

Risk-manager decisions are based on the provisions of the internal rules and depend on the trader's results. Risk-manager decisions are final and obligatory to be fulfilled immediately or at a given period of time. In case risk-manager's decision is not fulfilled, the Company will take the managed account back.

Trader's reward is 50% of profit on the managed account. In some cases additional bonuses are possible. Reward is transferred to the User's inner account every week after the markets closure and is available to withdraw right after that.

Cooperation and communication with the Company are conducted via personal website account or via corporate contact data of a risk-manager.
